Cambridge Main Street names Margaret Knudsen Executive Director

CAMBRIDGE, Maryland—June 1, 2022—The board of directors of Cambridge Main Street is pleased to announce it has appointed Margaret Knudsen as the organization’s new executive director, effective June 6th.

"The Cambridge Main Street board of directors is thrilled to announce the hiring of our new Executive Director, Mrs. Margaret Knudsen. She joins us with over 8 years of experience in communications and public relations within the non-profit sector. She brings a wealth of knowledge that we are excited to employ as we aggressively pursue the 4 pillars of the Main Street Organization - Business Development, Organization Development, Streetscape Development and Market and Promotions Development. Please join us in welcoming Margaret into this role and let us know if you, too, would like to get involved in the bright future we have ahead of us," said Karah Bunde, Cambridge Main Street Board of Directors member.

Cambridge Main Street is charged with economic revitalization of the downtown district of Cambridge, Maryland with a vision to advance our historic waterfront destination by enriching the lives of residents and visitors through art, entertainment, cultural, and business opportunities.

Margaret comes to Cambridge Main Street after spending the past six years as a communications and advocacy consultant assisting nonprofit clients with their communications, social media, project management, and government affairs work.

"The vibrant downtown is one of the leading reasons my family chose to make Cambridge our home. I'm very excited for the opportunity to champion the mission of Cambridge Main Street and look forward to continuing its revitalization with the power of our amazing volunteers and entrepreneurs," said Margaret.

Margaret and her family live in the West End of Cambridge. An avid swimmer, she is also a former competitive dinghy sailor and sailing coach.
